Department of State (DOS) and Texas A&M University EOS Rules

J-1 students are eligible for an EOS if he/she is in good academic standing, in legal status with DOS, and if the delay in completing degree requirements by the DS-2019 program end date has been caused by compelling academic or documented medical reasons. A student's overall academic progress, performance, and seriousness of purpose can also help to determine eligibility. Delays caused by any periods of academic probation, suspension or employment are not acceptable reasons for an EOS.

If a student will be out of the country during the weeks prior to the program end date on the DS-2019, they should discuss how they can still apply for an EOS with an ISS Advisor before leaving the U.S.

Students who do not meet the eligibility criteria for an EOS or who have already exceeded the program end date on the current DS-2019 must meet with an ISS Advisor as soon as possible to discuss the need for Reinstatement or New Entry.

Students who are granted an EOS will receive a new Form DS-2019 and must complete a new Form I-9 with their employing department payroll office.

J-2 dependent extensions are included in the J-1 student's EOS.

If Texas A&M University did not issue the J-1 student's DS-2019, then the sponsor listed in section #2 of the DS-2019 (i.e. IIE, LASPAU, etc.) must process the EOS. Visit with SSP to initiate the EOS process. The student must then bring the new extended DS-2019 to the ISS office for their file.

Students who fail to extend their DS-2019 prior to the expiration date must stop working immediately and schedule an appointment with an ISS advisor.
