Howdy!

International Family Newsletter

If you are an incoming student and spouse or your spouse recently applied documents to your local Department of Public Safety:

- Driver's License.

To apply for a Texas driver license, you will need to provide the following:

- Documents establishing proof of identity, such as a certificate of birth or valid passport, and must be a U.S. citizen.
- Social Security Number (SSN):
- Proof of vehicle insurance:
- Residency requirement:

The documents must include your name, a Texas address, and must be in English.